

Welcome to Clayton, New York “Where the Tradition Continues”

The Thousand Islands Regional Dock and Clayton Cruise Ship Terminal is conveniently located on the edge of the main shipping channel along the St. Lawrence River in historic Clayton, New York. The dock sits on the shoreline in front of Frink Park along Riverside Drive in downtown Clayton.

The Thousand Islands Regional Dock is able to host a wide scale of vessels – from tall ships to yachts, tugboats to cruise ships. The Thousand Islands Regional Dock and Clayton Cruise Ship Terminal is a U.S. Department of Homeland Security and U.S. Coast Guard certified 105c Port of Entry.

Recent visitors to Clayton include; tall ships - Lynx, Roseway and Highlander Sea, yacht - Blue Moon, Lady Sandals, Unity and Battered Bull, tugboats - Robinson Bay, Performance and Commodore Straits.

Specifics –

Dock Length:	386 feet
Water Depth:	up to 27 feet
Make:	Concrete slab
Mooring Cleats:	Six large, 21 small
Power Access:	Yes – up to 120 amps
Water Access:	Yes
Fuel Access:	Yes – by delivery truck to the dock, available upon request
Pump Out Abilities:	Yes – dockside, available upon request
Owner/Operator:	Village of Clayton

Amenities –

Grocery Store: Big M, located about a half mile from the dock – transportation available

Boat Repair: Plenty of nearby marinas

Hardware: Ace Hardware, located on Riverside Drive – within walking distance

Restaurants/Bars/Ice Cream Shops:

Along Riverside Drive and James Street. Others located within walking distance

Shops:

Along Riverside Drive and James Street. Others located within walking distance

Attractions:

Clayton Opera House, TI Museum, Antique Boat Museum, TI Arts Center

Accommodations:

Within walking distance from the dock

WiFi:

Various locations throughout the village

Village of Clayton Offices:

425 Mary Street 315-686-5552

Mayor: Norma Zimmer 315-777-7135 (cell)

Chief of Police/Port Director:

Kevin Patenaude 315-686-5592 (office)

315-405-5614 (cell)

Town of Clayton Offices:

405 Riverside Drive 315-686-3512

Town Supervisor: David Storandt

Thousand Islands Regional Dock:

Liaison: Michael Folsom 315-374-5273 (cell)

Chamber of Commerce:

517 Riverside Drive 315-686-3771

Executive Director: Tricia Bannister

